Munster U9 – U13 held in Ennis on Saturday & Sunday last. The Club did not pick up any medals however Danielle O'Riordan did qualify for the National Finals in the Shot U13. Our U13 girls relay team did very well as did the other individuals. The experience will stand to them.
 This weekend we have entered the Team Games U9 & U10 and we also have several relay teams competing in Castleisland. Best of luck to all.
 Special thanks to Eileen O' Riordan who took care of the children in Ennis on Sat. last.

Gneeveguilla Basketball Club:
Gneeveguilla has an Irish International Basketball Player. From August 9th to 18th this year, Sarajevo in Bosnia will host the under-16 boys FIBA European Championships Group B. The twelve players that will represent Ireland at this major event was recently named by head coach Mike Lynch, and included among them is Rónán Collins from Gneeveguilla. Rónán's selection has been proudly welcomed by Gneeveguilla Basketball Club, where he has played since he was an under-10 player. It is quite an achievement for a Club in only its eleventh year to be able to count an international player among its members. In fact, all of the Collins family are involved with Gneeveguilla BC as players, coaches, and administrators.

Rónán was first selected for the larger development national squad nearly two years ago following a series of excellent performances for Club, School (Pobalscoil Sliabh Luachra, Rathmore) and school divisional teams. What followed was a lot of long trips and long training sessions around the country, as well as continuing the good work at home too. He survived cut after cut as the squad was successively trimmed to bring it to the final twelve players. Between now and August there will be a lot more preparation to be done and many more miles to travel. It will all be worth it when Rónán will pull on the green jersey to play Great Britain, Sweden, Portugal, Romania, and Luxembourg in the group stages, and more in the knockout matches next August. To
