Cross Country: The club had a very good day at The Cross Country in Caherciveen on Sunday last, taking a number of medals. Paddy Hickey got his first cross country medal U9, Aine O' Sullivan in her first cross country race got a medal so too did Oisin O' Leary. Michael Thorton, although running out of his age, was in the medals. Saoirse Tompkins was 2nd in U15 and Ben Murphy was 3rd U17. Caroline Murphy was 2nd O50 & Siobhan Daly was 1st O35, Robert Purcell won O50. Well done to all our other runners who travelled to Caherciveen and participated on the day. The final Kerry Cross Country fixtures sees the country junior, senior and relays (4 x 500m) U10 – U14 up for decision in Firies on Sunday next at 11.00 am. Best of luck to all competing on the day.

Limerick 10 Miler: Hearty congratulations to Catherine Kiely who won the 10 mile road race in Limerick last week. It's great to see Catherine back in form.

Couch To 5K: Our current series is going ok at the moment, two nights per week, Monday & Thursday at 7.30 pm, new recruits are still welcome. As promised there will be a Santa run / walk held before Christmas. All monies collected from run/walk will be donated to a charity. So if anyone has any suggestions for a charity they would like to see benefit to hand in the name to Tom Joe or Michael Foley. All monies collected during the series will be divided equally between Gneeveguilla Athletic club and Barradubh Field Committee.

Acknowledgement and 1st Anniversary Timothy D. Moynihan, Shronemore 25th October, 2017

On this the First Anniversary of Tim's passing, his wife Kit, his sister Kathleen and his extended family would like to acknowledge the many expressions of sympathy and kindness shown to us following our sad loss. A heartfelt thanks to each and every person who attended Tim's funeral, travelled long distances, telephoned or called in person. Thanks to all those who sent Mass cards, letters of sympathy, perpetual enrolments, and wreaths or helped out in any way. A special word of thanks to Michael Hickey for all his support and friendship to Tim down through the years. Thanks to all Tim's homehelps, to Dr. Michael Casey, to the nurses and staff of both Mallow General Hospital and St. Columbanus Community Hospital, Killarney for their wonderful care. A word of thanks also to everyone who visited Tim while in hospital in both Mallow and Killarney. Thanks to Fr. Pat O'Donnell P.P. whose lovely Mass, kind words and support were greatly appreciated. Thanks to the sacristan, musicians and to all those who participated in the Mass in any way. Thanks to O'Keefe's Funeral Directors for their compassion and professionalism at all times. Thanks also to the gravediggers. As it would be impossible to thank everyone individually, please accept this acknowledgement as a token of our appreciation. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass has been offered for your intentions.

'Ar dheis Dé go raibh a hanam dílis'.
 First Anniversary Mass will take place in St. Joseph's Church Rathmore on Friday 19th October at 7.30pm
