These Public Participation Networks (PPNs) are new structures for public engagement and participation in Local Government in each Local Authority area. PPN is the mechanism through which the Local Authority links/engages with the broader community sector and are the representative voice of the community and voluntary, social inclusion and environmental sectors. The main role of the PPN is to form a network bringing together all community and voluntary groups, social inclusion groups, and environmental interest groups. Information is shared and people can work together on policy matters. Environmental – Organisations whose primary activities are environmental protection and/or environmental sustainability. Social Inclusion – Organisations whose activities focus on social inclusion, social justice and/or equality. Examples include organisations which aim to support people with a disability, refugees and asylum seekers, older people, women, young people and those living in poverty. Community &amp; Voluntary – Any organisation whose primary activities are other than those listed above belong in this category. When a group registers it becomes part of the County PPN Structure. Registration is easy. Sliabh Luachra Cycling Club.

A very busy Easter weekend with members racing in both Gorey and Ras Mumhan.

Congrats to SLCC members Richard Cleverly, Johnny R. O'Sullivan along with guest riders Richard O'Brien (Blarney CC) and Tom Shanahan (Limerick CC) who completed Ras Mumhan over the Easter weekend. Special mention to Donie Kelleher who had a head on collision with a car on stage 4 (final stage) which ended his race with a dislocated knee. Thanks to the Clubmates who supported the team all weekend, Pdraig Keane, Anthony Tancred, Mike Murphy, Ben Murphy, Pat Sheehan, and Denis O'Connor. Many thanks to Killorglin Cycling Club for a superbly organised weekend. Dan Murphy and Denis O'Connor has their first taste of adult stage racing in the Gorey 3 day, racing as part of a Munster Academy Team. Thanks to Danny Curtin, Sean Moriarty and all involved in the Munster Academy for their support over the weekend. Both Dan and Denis rode strong and finished well in the bunch, learning a lot along the way. Racing Sunday next at the 54th Annual John Drumm Memorial Cup in Currow with sign on open for all Categories at 9.30am with the Underage racing starting at 10.30am and the Senior events at 12.30pm. We are expecting to be represented at all levels with some new juveniles pinning their racing numbers for the first time. Currow is a great opportunity for parents to come along, experience the atmosphere and support their children Best of luck to our Club Members enjoying the heat and climbing, on a week's cycling break in Espuna. Training for Juveniles interested in either leisure or competitive cycling continues every Saturday at 9am. Some of our leisure cyclists are off to Ride Dingle this week end which will take in The Connor Pass and Sleah Head.

Leisure spins every Sunday morning at 8:30 from Rathmore and mid week at 6:30 from Knocknagree. The couch to Ring of Kerry group continue to up their mileage weekly on the mid-week and weekend spins.
