

RATHMORE PARISH NEWSLETTER

THE THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT: The people in the Gospel today are wondering if the Galileans who were killed by Pilate died because they deserved to. We can empathise with them as we know too well of accidents and tragedies of all kinds where we might ask the same question. Jesus insists that they have not done anything wrong. Their sudden death challenges those still alive to live to the full and to bear much fruit because life can end suddenly. Life is fragile; no one is indestructible. Common destiny beckons us to seek a new beginning ... Let ours be a time remembered for the awakening of a new reverence for life, the firm resolve to achieve sustainability, the quickening of the struggle for justice and peace, and the joyful celebration of life. Laudato Si', 207

The Eighth Amendment Article 40.3.3 of the Constitution of Ireland

'The State acknowledges the right to life of the unborn and, with due regard to the equal right to life of the mother, guarantees in its laws to respect, and, as far as practicable, by its laws to defend and vindicate that right'.

The Eighth Amendment is a very positive aspect of Irish society. It gives equal right to life to pregnant women and unborn babies. This is a unique protection which should be cherished. (Issue 1)

Join us next Wednesday Night March 7th in Teach Iosagain at 8pm

Some tweets by Gerry Hussey

Spirituality is a critical part of Wellness and Wellbeing. To belong, to be Grateful, to Trust and to have Perspective are essential to human wellness. It's our source that gives us grounding and meaning... Exercise your spiritual self.

Lent is a perfect Reminder & celebration of the Human Jesus. He experienced Self Doubt & Anxiety and worried that he may not be enough. His power was that he responded to all of these with Kindness and love. In any situation before you make any decision ask "What would love do"

The purpose of your life and the measure of your success should be the amount of kindness you expressed and the amount of happiness you experienced. Be gentle and compassionate with your thoughts, Words and Actions
