He began as a junior manager in Cadburys in 1948, when it first opened in Rathmore, and in 1957 became General Manager, until his retirement in 1978. At its peak, there were 500 employed there. Currently Mondelez (took over in 2012) operate the plant employing almost 80 people. Denis Collins is the plant manager. It was a very simple ceremony and a well- deserved tribute to one of Rathmore's finest. Ar dheis Dé go raibh a anam dílis.

Acknowledgement & First Anniversary
Bridie O'Neill, Shinnagh

As we remember with so much love and affection, Bridie, on the first anniversary of her passing, John, Maria, Deirdre, Eimear, Denis, Edel, Shane and their families would like to express their immense gratitude to those who sympathized with them during their heartbreaking loss, all those who visited our home, attended the funeral home, funeral mass and burial and travelled long distances to be with us. We would like to express our appreciation at the generosity received from friends and family for the wonderful food, catering and time given during the funeral.

We thank those who sent Mass cards, perpetual enrolments, letters of sympathy and those who gave donations to the Irish Motor Neurone

Disease Association. We wish to thank Fr Pat who visited Bridie in the days leading up to her passing and who celebrated a touching funeral Mass with Monsignor Dan Herlihy, Fr Larry Kelly, Fr Paddy O'Donoghue, Fr Micheal O'Dochartaigh and Fr Denis O'Mahony, accompanied by the beautiful music of Mary Dilworth. Thanks also to Sr. Stella, O'Keeffe Funeral Directors for their professionalism and guidance, and the various Guards of Honour, we thank you. We would also like to thank Bridie's niece Evelyn who sang the lovely 'Road to the Lane.' The choice of song was very meaningful and Bridie would have been really touched!

Thank you for the unwavering support from the Church, our extended family, her friends and all of the community in the wider Sliabh Luachra area that helped both Bridie and John to continue to live their lives as best they could during Bridie's illness. Their kindness and sensitivity is deeply appreciated.

We would like to extend a special thanks to all the medical staff who provided tremendous care and support to Bridie and John. In particular to Karina Kelleher who went over and above the call of duty and without whom it would have been a much more difficult journey for Bridie and her family. Thanks also to Dr Christine Walsh McCarthy, Dr Liam Norton and staff at Millstreet Medical Centre; Dr Sean O'Sullivan and his team at the Bons Secours Hospital, Cork; Dr Aisling Ryan and her team at Cork University Hospital; and the Irish Motor Neurone Disease Association especially nurse Katie Kinsella. A very special thanks goes to the fantastic team at the Palliative Care unit in Tralee and the wonderful staff at The Community Care Team in both Rathmore and Killarney who offered much support and help. The kindness and respect shown to Bridie did not go unnoticed. As it is impossible to thank everyone individually, please accept this acknowledgement as an expression of our deepest gratitude. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass has been offered for your intentions. Deeply loved, forever in our hearts, till we meet again.
