"Good news for farmers whose land has been designated to be preserved for the hen harrier: During a debate on the budget tonight at about 8pm, I asked the Minister to consider making repayments to the effected farmers whose lands have been seriously devalued by this designation. He answered my call by saying that he hopes to have a scheme in place before Christmas. Payment may even be made before Christmas but will definitely begin in early 2018 to compensate this section of the farming community in some way." Danny Healy-Rae TD
