Acknowledgement and 1st Anniversary

Phyllis Hickey Scrahan, Knocknagree

Died 5th February 2018

As we lovingly remember Phyllis on her 1st Anniversary, her husband Denis, daughters Shirley and Carmel, sons in law Ray and Patrick, grandchildren and extended Hickey family would like to express our heartfelt thanks to all those who sympathised with us and supported us on our sad loss. To everyone that attended the rosary, removal, funeral Mass and burial, especially all those who travelled long distances to be with us. A special mention of thanks to the victorious Knocknagree Football Team 2018 and Management who attended the removal en masse. Also thanks to those who sent Mass cards, perpetual enrolments, floral tributes, letters and messages of sympathy and those who brought food to the house. A special word of thanks to Fr. Pat O'Donnell P.P., whose lovely Mass, kind words and support were greatly appreciated. Thanks to Sacristan Betty Moynihan for her valued assistance, Joan Collins and Sheila Mc Sweeney for the singing and music, the Gravediggers and the Funeral Director John O'Leary for his advice and help over three difficult days. Thanks to Knocknagree Kenya Link who formed a Guard of Honour at the removal and organised a Mass in memory of Phyllis before Christmas. Also a thank you to Garda Charlie Mc Carthy for his assistance on the night of removal. As it would be impossible to thank everyone individually, please accept this acknowledgement as a token of our gratitude and appreciation. The holy sacrifice of the Mass has been offered for your intentions.
