Rathmore Credit Union

There are many benefits following Credit Union membership that members may not be aware of and from time to time we try to give members more information on some of these benefits..

Today we are asking you to take note on what a “Nomination” means for the member: What is a “Nomination”?

- A “Nomination” allows you the member to nominate a person or persons to the proceeds in your account, in the event of your death.
- The statutory maximum amount that can pass under a nomination is currently €23,000. Any amount in excess of this balance will form part of your estate.
- If you do not complete a nomination, the proceeds of your account will form part of your estate on your death and will be dealt with under the terms of your will.
- You may revoke or vary your nomination at any time by completing a new nomination form.
- A nomination is not revocable or variable by the terms of your will or by a codicil to your will.
- A nomination is automatically revoked by your subsequent marriage.
- Where your personal circumstances change (e.g. marriage, divorce or separation) you should review your nomination at the time.
- A person under 16 years of age cannot make a nomination.
- The Credit Union will contact the nominated person on the death of the member.

Having a nomination in place can make things easier for next of kin at the time of a bereavement.

If you have any questions or need more information please contact the Office.
