Sliabh Luachra Cycling Club.

Our Juvenile Racers were in Greenmount, Limerick Racecourse on Friday last competing in the first round of a three week league. This is a great opportunity for kids to get involved in racing in a safe traffic free environment using a 2km track outside the Racecourse. We were represented in all age groups with Abbey Dennehy taking to the track for her first race at Under 10 level. Well done to all our competitors, Keenan Dennehy, Nicholas Buckley and Kate Murphy (3rd) featured in the Under 12 race with Daniel Bradley, Aidan Morley (3rd) and Dinny Murphy (1st) in the Under 14 event. Finally Ciaran Finnegan (3rd) and Ben Murphy (1st) took on the Under 16 event. Well done to all the participants and good luck over the coming two weeks as the league points are accumulated to determine the overall positions. Congratulations to Ben Murphy on making the six man U16 Irish team for next week's races in Shrewsbury, UK. Hard luck to Amy Fleming on missing out on the U14 girls Irish team for next week due to a crash last week that put her out of Kanturk which was the last selection race, but watch this space..she will be back.

The Femoy Cycling Club Hennessy Cycles Summer League starts this week and every Tuesday night for the summer with races for adults and juveniles. Well done to all the Club members, young and not so young who took part in the Twin Peaks Challenge organised by Killarney Cycling Club on Sunday last and well done to Killarney for organising such a well-run event and some Club members did the Remembering Zoe Cycle in Abbeyfeale last Sunday also.

Preparations are ongoing for the Inaugural Sliabh Luachra CC Youth Races for Juniors, U16, U14 & U12 Boys & Girls on June 16th at Knocknagree. Launch of the Sliabh Luachra Cycling Sportive took place on Tuesday last in Teach Iosagain special guests Aidan O'Mahony, Donnacha O'Connor and Michelle Finn. The Sportive is on the 30th June next with 3 routes to choose from.

Training for Juveniles interested in either leisure or competitive cycling continues every Saturday at 9am.

Acknowledgement
Sr. Damian Murphy

Sr. Damian's family, sisters-in-law Tess and Peggy, nieces, nephews, grandnieces and grandnephews and her Presentation Sisters in Rathmore, wish to take this opportunity to thank most sincerely all who sympathised and supported us on the death of our beloved Sr. Damian. We are deeply grateful to those who attended rosary, removal and funeral Mass. We thank those who telephoned, sent Mass cards, letters of sympathy and floral tributes. A special thanks to Matron and Staff, Doctors, Nurses and devoted Carers in Our Lady of Fatima Nursing Home, Tralee and to our kind neighbours, carers and friends who were so supportive of us during those days.

St. Damian's Mass was a fitting and meaningful celebration of a life of dedication and service and we are deeply grateful to the Chief Celebrant Fr. Pat O'Donnell and to all the Priests who concelebrated. Thanks to our Organist, Choir and Eucharistic Ministers and Altar Servers. Thanks also to her past pupils and who took an active part in the ceremony.

Thanks to our Undertaker, John D. O'Keeffe and Staff and also the Gravediggers for the caring and professional manner in which they conducted Sr. Damian's funeral. The holy sacrifice of the Mass has been offered for your intentions
