Rathmore Gneeveguilla Community Games

Our U13 girl's basketball team represented our area at the County Finals last Saturday in Duagh. A special word of thanks to Ber Murphy for all her help and assistance with this event. We would like to thank the following players for taking part: Orla Cronin, Leah Daly, Amy Fleming, Ella Guerin-Crowley, Laura Hickey, Tara Jones, Grace Murphy, Leah Murphy, Sarah O'Donoghue and Mia Reen. Thank you also to their two coaches, Mags Hickey and Sean Clifford. Our U13 boys basketball team also took part in the County final competition on Sunday, firstly in Castleisland with three successive wins over Ballymac, Fossa and Duagh, which led them to Duagh in the afternoon to play Castleisland. A game of two halves, our team were down 8 points going into the second half of the final, a great comeback led to a heartbreaking finish, where Castleisland pipped us at the post by one single point, final score 25-24. The boys did their area and families proud and won a County Silver Medal for their efforts. Well done to our panel of players, Shane Daly, John Hughes, David McCarthy, Conor Moynihan, Padraig Moynihan, Darragh Nagle, Daragh O'Keefe, Michael Togher, and James Twomey. Final word of thanks to Jim Hughes, Conlin O'Leary and Carmel Healy for coaching this team and for their time and commitment preparing the boys for the County Finals.

DATE FOR YOUR DIARY:

Our Annual Art & Handwriting event will be held at Teach Iosagain, this Friday 26th January at 7pm. €2 per child. Art - U8/U10/U12/U14/U16 and Handwriting will be U10/U12 age group. Winners of each category will go forward to the county final on Sat 24th February, in Listowel.

DRAUGHTS - Any child wishing to participate in the County Competition on Sunday Feb 25th, please contact Aeneas on 0876577167 or Cynthia on 0860818606 - We would be delighted to have a few teams attending U10,

U12 & U14 (mixed) - panel min of 5 in a group. Training can be organised if we have enough interest registered.

Good luck to our U16 boys with their County Final next week, more details on this event will be on our Facebook and Instagram page.
