About The Competition

The theme of the 2018 Credit Union Art Competition is 'The Force of Nature...' The Credit Union Art Competition is one of the most successful annual promotions undertaken by the Credit Union Movement and the 2018 competition aims to continue this winning formula.

The competition is about encouraging and rewarding self-expression, creativity and imagination among young artists throughout Ireland.

Competition entrants are free to express their creativity using a wide variety of media.

The competition requires entrants to draw or paint posters on the theme using pencil, charcoal, pen or ink, felt-tip markers, crayon, pastel, water colours, gouache, acrylics, oils, poster colour or collage.

N.B. Entries must be submitted to the local credit union only – no entries will be accepted directly at chapter or national level. For an entry form please contact your local credit union.
