Cairns are a group of monuments constructed for a ritual or social gathering. There are just over 400 of them in Ireland, and they are almost all found north of a line between Galway Bay and Dublin, i.e. in the northern half of the country. There is also a Jewish custom of leaving stones on the grave to mark a visit to remember a loved one.

Please inform people outside Parish who may have relatives buried in any of the aforementioned of dates and time. It is greatly appreciated that all our graveyards are kept tidy.

CARVE OUT SOME TIME – it only takes 15 minutes to say the family rosary – you will transform your ordinary day into a precious bouquet of love for Our Lady. THE SPIRIT OF TRUTH - THE HOLY TRINITY

A priest was sitting in an airport waiting for his plane. A man sat down beside him and began to give his opinions on religion. He boasted: "I won't accept anything I can't understand. Take this business of three Gods in one God or whatever it is. I can't buy that. Nobody can explain it to me, so I will not believe it." Pointing to the sun streaming in the window, the priest asked: "Do you believe in the sun?" "Why, of course," the doubter admitted. "All right" the priest continued, "the rays you see coming through that window are from the sun, 90,000,000 miles from here. The heat we feel comes from both the sun and from its rays. The Holy Trinity is something like that. The sun is God the Father; the sun sends out its rays, God the Son. Then from both the sun and its rays, from the Father and the Son, proceeds or comes the Holy Spirit, the heat. Can you explain how that happens?" The doubter quickly changed the subject. There is more to life than meets the eye. Do we pray that the Holy Spirit may sharpen our vision so that we may see things as God sees them?
