RATHMORE PARISH CAMINO PILGRIMAGE 2019

The fourth Parish Camino Pilgrimage takes place next week.

2016	Camino Portugués	(Porto – Baiona)
2017	Camino Frances	(Sarria to Santiago)
2018	Camino Portuges	(Tui –Santiago)
2019	Camino Finisterre	(Santiago - Mauxia)

The Camino Finisterre is unique in that it is the only Camino to travel away from Santiago. Finis-Terrae translates simply as Lands-End or 'End of the World'. From prehistoric time's right up to the middle- Ages this was, quite literally, the end of the known world. It was here, at this very point, that the material world - the world of matter, seen with the physical eye, met the world of spirit that could only be seen with spiritual vision.

Finisterre's symbolic significance and potency is not lost on the pilgrims who still come here seeking to reconcile the inner and outer realities in their lives.

"A pilgrim travels on two paths simultaneously and must pay attention to both. When we place ourselves on the pilgrim path we sow the intention to stretch and expand soul consciousness so that we can lift ourselves out of the mundane in order to journey back to God or whatever name we give to that nameless Source from whence we came.

- The Camino makes us simpler, because the lighter the backpack the less strain to our back and the more we experience how little we need to be alive.
- The Camino makes us brother/sister. Whatever we have we must be ready to share because even if we started on our own, we will meet companions.
- The Camino breeds community: community that greets the other, that takes interest in how the walk is going for the other and that takes and shares with the other.
- The Camino makes demands on us. We must get up even in spite of tiredness; we must walk in the darkness of night while dawn is growing; we must just get the rest that will keep us going.
- The Camino calls us to contemplate, to be amazed, to welcome, to stop, to be quiet, to listen, to admire, to bless ... Nature, our companions on the journey, our own selves, God.

While on route we will try our best to keep you up to date with our experience .....

On the Camino

I went to Santiago de Compostela,	I return to my old life	Oh God!
Seeking myself and God.	To places where	To live anew can only be done facing
Changed, I return home	I re-encounter the familiar,	ahead.
Rich in experiences	living has become a gift.	Along the pilgrim road of my life.
Outer and inner	because I live from inside, from God.	With your blessing.
