Beheenagh Burial Ground, Co. Kerry

(extracts from a report done by Bernard O'Mahony for Mr. Michael Connolly, County Archaeologist)

Beheenagh burial ground is located in the townland of Beheenagh, parish of Rathmore (formerly Kilcummin), barony of Magunihy, in east Co. Kerry, approximately 5.5km east of the town of Killarney and the same distance west of the Kerry/Cork county boundary (NGR 110479/90405).

The site is recorded on the OS Discovery map 79 as 'Cillin'. It is also listed by the Archaeological Survey of Ireland in the Record of Monuments and Places as KE068-010---- 'Children's Burial Ground'.

The site was originally indicated on the 1841 1st edition 6'' Ordnance Survey map as 'Burial Ground for Children' and on the 1895 25'' Ordnance Survey map as 'Children's Burial Ground'. The extents of the burial ground, a sub-rectangular enclosed space, as shown on the Ordnance Survey maps appear to have remained unchanged through time. The burial ground is elevated approximately 2m above the surrounding ground level to the top of the enclosing random rubble stone wall boundary. It measures 28m north-south by 27m east west. The graveyard is bounded on its north east and south sides by a curving roadway, its west side by a concrete driveway to an adjacent farmyard and on the north side by a range of farm buildings. The graveyard is entered by a flight of concrete steps towards the centre of the western side. It contains a total of 9 headstones, 7 grave markers and 2 unmarked burials.

Though some grave markers are visible in the centre and on the eastern side of the burial ground there may be others on the western side of the graveyard, where the grass has grown high and may be concealing further burials. Local information would suggest that burial in unmarked graves was practiced in all areas of the graveyard up to the recent past. The uneven nature of the ground on the western side of the graveyard would suggest that this area does contain some unmarked burials. Headstones 1,2,3,4,5,6,9 bear the Moynihan surname. Headstone 7: Mc Carthy.

Headstone 8. Ryan. My thanks to Mr Michael Connolly for sharing this information with us. Fr Pat

A WALK TO REMEMBER: On Sunday July 9th at 1pm sharp, there is a walk being organised on Ballybunion beach to remember all lost love ones. All proceeds donated to children's cancer charity Aoi bheann's Pink Tie. Registration from 12noon. With balloon release at 12:45hrs. Please join us for A Walk to Remember. Everyone welcome. Thanks to everyone who supported a Walk to Remember last year and for your continued support.

DIOCESAN COLLECTION: Diocesan collection for Sick and Retired Priests will be taken up at all masses THIS weekend 1st and 2nd July. We appreciate those parishioners who have direct debits set up and all who continue to be very generous to this collection. This collection supports our sick and retired priests with medical care and living expenses. Thanks for your generous support. The priests who benefit from this collection will keep us in their prayers.

ROTA TO LEAD ROSARY AT 11.30AM MASS IN RATHMORE: We invite parishioners who attend 11.30am Mass in Rathmore an opportunity to lead the rosary before Mass. We need 8-10 volunteers to form a rota which would mean leading the rosary once every 2 months. If you would like to volunteer please give your name and telephone number to parish office or hand into sacristy. Thanks to all who are on rotas for 9am in Shrone and 6pm in Rathmore. "There is no problem too great that cannot be solved by the Rosary" Sr. Lucia

ALTAR SERVERS: As we come to the end of another school year, it means that children from 6th classes will be finishing their term as Altar Servers in our Churches. On your behalf and on my own behalf I wish to thank these Servers for their dedication and commitment to their Ministry as Altar Servers over the last number of years. Very many thanks to their families also.

END OF YEAR FOR OUR SCHOOLS: We wish the school community of our 6 primary schools and Scoil Phobail Sliabh Luachra safe and enjoyable summer holidays and May the Lord keep us all safe and well. A special welcome to all who will be visiting our Parish over the summer.
