The 80th Anniversary of Gneeveguilla Church

Canon J O'Sullivan was born in Kenmare in 1866, he was ordained on the 20th of June, 1886. He received a donation of money from his brother and put it towards the building of the much needed church in Gneeveguilla."

In the presence of two thousand parishioners, Rev. Dr. O'Brien, Bishop of Kerry, opened, consecrated and dedicated the new church at 11 o'clock on the 10th of October, 1937. Having blessed the exterior first, the bishop on his way to the main entrance was met by the architect, Mr. Robinson who presented him with a gold key. With the key he opened the church and then consecrated the interior. It is dedicated to "Our Lady of the Holy Rosary". The bishop then presided over solemn high mass which was concelebrated by over twenty priests. The choir was prepared by Sr. Assumpta, Rathmore and conducted by Mrs. O'Leary. Other singers were James Donnelly, Kitty O'Connor, Lizzie Linehan, Nora O'Rourke and her sister Kitty O'Leary. (The 80th Anniversary of our church will be celebrated at 10am Mass on Sunday October 15th)
