FR. PAT WRITES OUR CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

I hope that 2019 has been a year of blessing for you.

For me, the beginning of 2019 was interesting. I enjoyed three Christmases' - the usual one here in Rathmore, and another two in the Holy Land'

In the Holy Land, the Orthodox churches use the old Julian calendar that pre-dates the Gregorian calendar, to determine the date of the religious feasts. Accordingly, the Greek Orthodox celebrate Christmas on January 6th and the Armenians celebrate Christmas on January 18th. On the day before Armenian Christmas, January 17th, the Armenian Patriarch together with the clergy and the faithful, travels from Jerusalem to the city of Bethlehem, to the Church of Nativity of Christ, where his entourage are greeted by the Mayor of Bethlehem. Afterwards, church services and ceremonies are conducted in the Cathedral of Nativity all night long until the next day, January 18th.

What was special about my time away, was a break from being the one who was responsible In my "2nd and 3rd Christmas" it was great to be ministered to; to be part of the congregation. So this year I will be very conscious of that perspective during our Christmas Ceremonies.

To those of you who will visit our parish for the first time, or will be returning, to each of you - Thank you. Thank you, for being with us for the Christmas celebrations. You should not underestimate how much your presence enriches us presence after all is what Christmas is all about. The first Christmas was about God showing up. "The WORD made Flesh, and lived among us"

Christmas Masses give a true reflection of our community. Ceremonies can seem a bit chaotic at times, but it will be wonderful to hear babies crying, children full of anticipation of Santa, teenagers and young adults with their wonderful sense of style, all family members filling the church pew.

Each one brings their own story, of love, hope, joy, or the opposite: disappointment, grief and sadness. The importance of the birth of Jesus is where God comes to us and meets us where we are in this world today.

On behalf of all Parishioners we wish to acknowledge the many of you have served so generously this past year. Whether it's participating in ministries, parish committees, parish collectors, leading groups; shepherding children; playing music; attending to the church environment; acting as area contacts; or any one of the countless other (usually unseen) tasks that keep our Parish warm and vibrant. Our thanks to our Secretaries and Sacristans who are so wholehearted in their giving.

This year too we wish to thank Fr. Anthony O'Sullivan who made a wonderful impression on everyone during his time in the parish. (Another missionary from Ballymac!)

Thank you so much for all you do!

Yes it's hard to believe that it's nearly a year since I participated in the Armenian Christmas but it's nice to be back to the place where I feel very much at home. Fr Pat

KERRY SAMARITANS CHURCH GATE COLLECTION will be taking place on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day at all Masses in the parish. Your support would be greatly appreciated to enable them to continue to provide help and emotional support to their callers.
