TROCAIRE BOXES

Every year Trócaire asks for your help during Lent to fund lifesaving programmes around the world. This year, of course, it was not possible to return Trócaire boxes through the parish in the usual way. This is the worst possible timing coming just as the world's poorest people need us most. Therefore, Trócaire are appealing to you to return your Lenten donation. Simply count or estimate what is in your box and donate in the following ways

1. Online at www.trocaire.org 2. By phone: 1850 408 408 3. By post to Trócaire, Maynooth, Co. Kildare

The contents of each and every Trócaire box, no matter how small, come together to make a significant difference.

This virus knows no borders, but neither does our compassion.

THE UNFINISHED PAINTING

Leonardo da Vinci had started to work on a large canvas in his studio. For a while he worked at it – choosing the subject, planning the perspective, sketching the outline, applying the colours, with his own inimitable genius. Then suddenly he stopped working on it. Summoning one of his talented students, the master invited him to complete the work. The horrified student protested that he was both unworthy and unable to complete the great painting which his master had begun. But da Vinci silenced him. "Will not what I have done inspire you to do your best?" Jesus our Master began to spread the Good News two thousand years ago, by what he said and did, and supremely by what he suffered. He illustrated his message, and he has left us to finish the picture. Will his life not inspire us to finish the picture? This is the message of the Ascension

On the Feast of the Ascension we focus our minds and hearts not so much on Jesus' departure from this world but rather on his continued presence among us, albeit in different ways. While his earthly mission concludes with the Ascension, his mission of salvation continues in the Church. We, together, are the Church. We are the Body of Christ which is a sign of God's loving presence to the entire world. We are reminded to assume the responsibility that comes with baptism as we renew our commitment to be the Body of Christ and to loving our neighbour.

Last Word: There is always something to be thankful for!
