We thank Dodo's work colleagues for knitting a beautiful blanket which he treasured and acknowledge our appreciation for the respect shown to Dodo by Seamus Clifford, Frank Maher, Tim Casey and his colleagues by marking his retirement with an intimate gathering at his home. We are so grateful to those who sent Mass cards and posted condolences online. Due to the pandemic we know many friends and family could not be with us to say farewell to Dodo. we appreciate all your kind messages and know you were with us in spirit. We also appreciate all those who watched Dodo's Requiem Mass online. We highly appreciate the support of the priests of the Killarney Pastoral Area for their prayers and Masses offered for Dodo throughout his illness and thank all the priests who concelebrated the Requiem mass. In particular, we wish to thank our family friend, Fr. Tom Looney, for his support to us as a family throughout Dodo's journey through cancer and for the meaningful Funeral Mass for Dodo. We express our gratitude to Helen and Dodo's friend, Denis, for organising the most fitting funeral music for Dodo and a special word of thanks to all those who were involved in the music and singing.	Sincere thanks to Dodo's nephew Kieran for the touching and perfect eulogy.
