Acknowledgement &
1st Anniversary
Philip Cremin
Lissyconnor
(Philly Bán)

As we lovingly remember Phil on this his 1st Anniversary, his daughters Mary Eilish and Kay, son John, sons-in-law and grandchildren wish to sincerely thank those who offered support, sympathy and gestures of kindness following our sad loss. Sincere thanks for all the Mass Cards, letters, phone calls and condolences on rip.ie. Thanks to our neighbours and friends who stood on the roadside as Dad's funeral cortege left his home on route to the Church.
We would like to acknowledge the many family members and friends at home and abroad who could not attend Phil's funeral in person due to the Covid restrictions at the time but joined us for the Mass online. We would like to thank the Doctors, Nurses and staff of Millstreet Medical Centre, to the Public Health Nurses especially Mary and Sheila, to David and staff of Reen's Pharmacy for all their help over the years. A special thanks to Dad's home help Ann Marie for her wonderful care in his final few months.

Sincere thanks to Fr. Pat O'Donnell for the many visits to his home and for the beautiful funeral Mass, to Sr Stella, Church Sacristan, to Sheila and Joan for their wonderful music and singing which made Dad's Mass so special.

Thanks to O'Keeffe's Undertakers for their guidance in arranging the funeral and to the grave diggers for preparing Phil's resting place.

As it is not possible to thank everyone individually, please accept this acknowledgement as an expression of our gratitude.

The holy sacrifice of the Mass has been offered for your intentions.
