Gneeveguilla GAA Club:

Last Sunday week was an extremely proud day for the Club to play in Croke Park. It has been a privilege and an honour to be involved with these players and management team over the past three years, they are a credit to themselves, their families and to our community. We would like to thank all backroom team involved in team as well. To our travelling supporters we can only say thank you ye are second to none 🙌🙌. Thanks to all who made this journey possible with your kind donations it's been greatly appreciated. This is a weekend that will always be remembered, we stick together as a community and will bounce back from this.
