Do I know you? Do you know me?

*"The Lord has sent me to bring good news to the poor,
and to set the downcast free.*

People who've gone through significant loss, for example, might find it difficult to reconnect with people who haven't seen the journey they've gone through. Those who've had a significant experience overseas might find it hard to get back into their old rhythms of life and relationships when they get home. For old friends and family, trying to acquaint ourselves with the 'new' version of that person can sometimes be difficult.

We might have some understanding, then, of the people of Nazareth. But this Gospel reading reminds us that when people we love come back to us after a time of change, it's worth spending the time getting to know them again. Let's consider today who we might reconnect with in our own lives.

July speaks of holiday, warmth, relaxation Don't rush, slow down, 'inhale' the winder of life.

Inniskeen Road: July Evening

The bicycles go by in twos and threes -
There's a dance in Billy Brennan's barn tonight,
And there's the half-talk code of mysteries
And the wink-and-elbow language of delight.
Half-past eight and there is not a spot
Upon a mile of road, no shadow thrown
That might turn out a man or woman, not
A footfall tapping secrecies of stone.

I have what every poet hates in spite
Of all the solemn talk of contemplation.
Oh, Alexander Selkirk knew the plight
Of being king and government and nation.
A road, a mile of kingdom. I am king
Of banks and stones and every blooming thing.

-Patrick Kavanagh
