World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly 2022, celebrated worldwide Sunday July 24th whose theme, indicated by Pope Francis, is "In old age they will still bear fruit" (Ps. 92:15).

"With the World Day of Grandparents and the Elderly, the Holy Father invites us to become aware of the relevance of the elderly in the life of societies and our communities, and to lay the foundations for their ordinary pastoral care."

Pope Francis established in 2021 that this Day will be celebrated annually on the fourth Sunday of July, around the feast of St. Joachim and St. Anne, the "grandparents" of Jesus. This year it will take place on July 24.

On the same day, the Pope begins an apostolic journey to Canada, during which he is scheduled to visit the Shrine of St. Anne and meet with youth and the elderly at an elementary school in Iqaluit. Caring for the elderly and their dialogue with the younger generation is a constant concern of the Holy Father, who has devoted much of this year's Wednesday audiences to a catechesis on old age. Moreover, the prayer intention Francis entrusts to the whole Church through the Pope's Worldwide Prayer Network for this month of July is for the elderly.

The Holy Father states in this year's message that "visiting the elderly who live alone is a work of mercy in our time."

On this occasion, I urge you to visit the elderly at home or in nursing homes. Simple gestures of care done with love and pastoral charity will give courage and light to many lonely people."
