Acknowledgement

and

First Anniversary

of Hannah (Joan) O’Sullivan, Mountcain, who passed away on November 23rd, 2021.

Hannah’s family wish to extend their heartfelt thanks to all relatives, friends and neighbours for their sympathy and support. Thank you to all who sent flowers, mass cards, gave online condolences and expressed their sympathy by phone.

Thank you to all who attended her funeral mass and burial and lined the route between her home and the church.

Thank you to all the carers who helped support Hannah while she was still at home. Special thanks to Margaret Collins and all the wonderful staff at Millstreet Community Hospital, who cared so well for Hannah during her time there. Thank you to Fr. Pat for all his heartfelt and kind words. Thank you to Joan for her lovely singing at the funeral Mass, Irene for leading the rosary and O’Leary’s undertakers for their professionalism and empathy at such a difficult time.

The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass has been offered for your intentions.

Hannah’s First Anniversary Mass will be held on Saturday 26th November at 7.30pm in Knocknagree Church
