PANTO SEASON IS HERE AGAIN.

After the curfew of covid, a long-held tradition in Rathmore is revived, and members of The Marian Players are in full swing once again as they prepare for their January show.

Pantomimes come in all shapes and sizes, and during the lock down the Panto in Rathmore people have explored all the ins and outs of Pantoland. The result is revealed when Dame Annie goes out West brandishing more life, more colour and more fun than ever.

Look out for the details coming your way for the last week of January with our 34th Panto presentation in The Community Centre, Rathmore.

Acknowledgement & First Anniversary
In Loving Memory of
Daniel (Dan) Cronin
Shanbally, Knocknagree who passed away
December 16th 2021.

As we fondly remember Dan on the First Anniversary of his passing, Mary, Tim, Brendan, Josephine and extended family would like to thank our neighbors and friends who were a great support to us during the funeral and since Dan's passing. To all those who attended the funeral, sent Mass Cards, posted condolences online and brought food to the house, we would like to sincerely thank you.

We would like to thank Fr. Pat O'Donnell for all his assistance and for a meaningful funeral Mass.

Our deepest gratitude to the paramedics who attended and cared for Dan. O'Leary's Funeral Directors for their assistance and professionalism and the singers who sang at Dan's Funeral Mass. We would also like to thank Horgans Centra Ardfert, Stacey Moroney (RIP) and Cait Murphy Koziel for all their help and support.

As it would be impossible to thank everyone individually we trust you will accept this acknowledgement as an expression of gratitude and appreciation.

Dan's First Anniversary Mass will take place on Saturday 17th December at 19.30pm in Christ the King Church Knocknagree

Acknowledgement
&
First Anniversary for Jerry McCarthy
Stagmount, Headford, Co Kerry
Died 15th December, 2021 aged 89

As we approach Jerry's 1st anniversary, his wife Maime along with his sons Sean and Maurice, his daughters Mairead, Sheila and Maura and their families, his sisters and all the extended family, we wish to acknowledge and thank all who supported us through those first days of grief and continued to support us through the past year. Your gentle sympathy and practical kindness will always be remembered.

As covid restrictions were in place at that time we wish to thank those who left online messages on RIP.ie, the telephone calls and texts we all received, the Mass cards and letters.

We wish to thank all who attended the funeral home and respected the protocols that were in place. Sincere thanks also to those who lined the roads as we travelled to the church for his requiem Mass.

We very much appreciated the professional help and kindness of the Public Health nursing team in Rathmore, his home help and carers who all did so much for him, and for us as a family to care for him at home for as long as we could.

We wish to thank the staff in Araglen Nursing home who cared for him in final weeks and allowing us the time with him in those final few days.

We also thank the doctors at Dr Michael Casey's practice in Millstreet.

A special word of thanks to Fr Pat O'Donnell for his visits to Jerry at home over the past few years.

Fr.Pat guided us through the few days after Jerry's death and helped us in organising the funeral Mass.

Thank you also to our neighbours Fr Pat Mc Carthy and Fr Michael Moynihan who concelebrated at the Mass.

Thank you to John O Donoghue who organised the music along with his brother Paud and Mr Kiely. Their musical enrichment added to the funeral Mass

Thanks also to John D and his son George of O Keeffe Funeral directors for their professionalism in carrying out their duties. Thanks to all that brought food to the house and to all our friends, family and neighbours for their time and help shown to us at that time.

Thanks also to neighbours and family friends that visited Dad over the past number of years at home and continue to visit Maime there since Dad's death.

It would be impossible to thank everyone individually who helped us in any way. We hope this acknowledgment will reflect our gratitude.

The Holy Sacrament of Mass has been offered for your intentions.

Jerry's First Anniversary Mass is on Sunday 18th December at 11.30 in St Joseph's Church, Rathmore
