

OUR PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

In our Parish people are nourished by the Word of God. It is a Parish where love is tangible and practical. It is a place where people pray together. Our Parish community is centred on Jesus Christ, on knowing and loving Him. It is incarnated in the love we show one another.

They Die Slowly

They die slowly those who become slaves of habit, repeating the same journeys every day; those who never change brands, never risk, wearing a new colour, never speak, to persons they don't know.

They die slowly those who avoid passion, who prefer black to white and 'dotted' 'i's rather than the whirlwind of emotions, exactly that which rescues shining eyes, rescues smiles from yawns, rescues hearts for blunders and feelings.

They die slowly who don't turn the tables when they are unhappy at work, Who don't risk certainty for uncertainty to follow a dream, who don't; permit themselves, even once in a lifetime, to run away from sensible advice.

They die slowly those who don't travel, don't read, don't listen to music, don't appreciate themselves.
They die slowly
those who pass their days complaining of their bad luck or of the incessant rain.

They die slowly
who abandon a project even before it's begun who never ask about a subject with which they are unfamiliar, never respond when asked about something they know.

Let's avoid dying by instalments, by remembering that being alive demands much more than simply breathing.
Only ardent patience will ensure we reach a splendid happiness.
Pablo Neruda (translated from the Spanish original)

Webinar – Shaping the Future of Parishes

The Diocese of Kerry will host a webinar, “Moving Forward in Hope – shaping together a future for our local church communities, parishes and pastoral areas” on Monday, November 27th @ 7.30 pm. The speaker, Dr Jessie Rogers, will explore God's call to us as Church today. This will prepare us for parish meetings to be held throughout the diocese in February 2024, where we will plan together for the future of our parishes. To register, www.dioceseofkerry.ie
