

OUR PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

In our Parish people are nourished by the Word of God. It is a Parish where love is tangible and practical. It is a place where people pray together. Our Parish community is centred on Jesus Christ, on knowing and loving Him. It is incarnated in the love we show one another.

Rathmore Church Care

Thankfully we have a wonderful group who take care of the Altar area and our sacred spaces. However, unlike the other churches in the parish, we do not have an "Altar Society" to keep watchful eye on the general environment in the church.

We are proposing the establishment of such a group who will take on this role.

What is involved: We are hoping to get three teams of three or four people who will come together once a month to will attend to cleaning in the body of the Church.

How often will I be needed.?: The commitment sought would be a few hours every three months. (We will get professional cleaners to do a big clean on the fourth month.)

Just a Thought

"Who finds a faithful friend, finds a treasure." – (Jewish saying)

Who are my "treasures"?

*Sweet July, warm July!
 Month when mosses near the stream,
 Soft green mosses thick and shy,
 Are a rapture and a dream.
 Summer Queen! whose foot the fern
 Fades beneath while chestnuts burn;
 I welcome thee with thy fierce love,
 Gloom below and gleam above.
 Though all the forest trees hang dumb,
 With dense leafiness o'ercome;
 Though the nightingale and thrush,
 Pipe not from the bough or bush;
 Come to me with thy lustrous eye,
 Azure-melting westerly,
 The raptures of thy face unfold,
 And welcome in thy robes of gold!
 Tho' the nightingale broods—'sweet-chuck-sweet' -
 And the ouzel flutes so chill,
 Tho' the throstle gives but one shrilly trill
 To the nightingale's 'sweet-sweet.'*
