Rathmore Gneeveguilla Community Games

We were delighted to host the 2025 U14 Girls County Football finals at the Rathmore GAA Grounds last Bank Holiday Monday.

Eight teams entered the event with our own team coming out as winners against Castleisland in the final. Kenmare were third with Spa Fenit/Barrow in fourth place. We would like to extend our congratulations to the following team members and to their coaches Donie O'Connor, Derek Moynihan and Miriam Moynihan.

Team: Laura Breen, Eve Cleverly, Laura Cronin, Aisling Fenton, Sinead Hurley, Ava Knee, Jessica Lynch, Elaine McCarthy, Cara McIlroy, Eabha Moynihan, Ruby Moynihan, Megan Murphy, Mairead O'Leary, Clodagh O'Connor, Doireann O'Leary, Grace O'Sullivan.

Our U14 girls winning County team will now prepare for the next round preliminary competition in University of Limerick, with the chance to reach the Munster Finals being held on the 12th July in Shannon .

Our U14 girls team will consist of 10 of last year's National U12 football champions, so we would like to wish the team and their trainers the very best of luck as they continue with their training.

On behalf of everyone at Rathmore Gneeveguilla Community Games we would like to extend a big thank you to Rathmore GAA for the use of their grounds at the weekend and to Seamus Cronin for all his help preparing the three pitches for Monday's event.

Finally a word of thanks to all our committee members who prepared and organised the event , and to all the family and supporters who came along on Monday to support their team.
