Our deepest gratitude goes to our extended family, our neighbours and friends for their love and support over this last year, for the food the chats and the shared memories.

We greatly appreciate all those who cared for Donie during his last few weeks. The dedicated staff in ICU and all the Doctors, Nurses and staff in UHK. We will be forever grateful for the kindness, care and attention, Donie, received from all at the Palliative Care Unit in UHK.

Our thanks to John D., George and Tony at O'Keeffe's Funeral Home, for their guidance and professionalism and for making it possible for Donie to remain with us a little bit longer.

We would like to thank Fr. Denis O'Mahony, who took the time to visit our family to ensure Donie's funeral Mass was made meaningful for all our family and friends. We would like to thank John and Paud O'Donoghue for the beautiful music.

Sincere thanks for the expressions of sympathy on RIP.ie, at the funeral home, at the house, all who sent sympathy cards and all who attended Donie's funeral Mass.

Our sincere thanks also to Fr. Pat O'Donnell for celebrating, Donie's Month's Mind Mass and to Antionette for her beautiful singing on that day. As it is not possible to thank everyone individually, please accept this acknowledgement as an expression of our deepest appreciation.
