John Oliver Fleming

Gneeveguilla Village who passed away on 26th August 2025

As we celebrate our beloved Oliver's first anniversary, his wife Eileen, daughter Norrina, son Timothy and wife Marie, and grandchildren Tadhg and Laoise, together with the extended Fleming and Daly families, wish to express our heartfelt gratitude to everyone who supported us through our time of grief.

We truly appreciate the effort made by neighbours and friends who attended the Rosary and prayers led by Fr. McCarthy in our home and at the removal. Many thanks to the great crowd of people who came to the funeral home and Burial Mass, to his much-loved family and friends who travelled from England, and also to those who came long distances to pay their respects to Oliver.

Many thanks for all your Mass cards, letters, phone calls, texts and online condolences, which were very personal and touching.

Our very sincere thanks to all the Home Help teams, who were so helpful and kind and became like family to us. Many thanks to Nora and the staff of St. Joseph's Day Care, Rathmore. You were all so wonderful to Oliver and together made it possible for Oliver to remain at home until the very end, where he was happiest.

Thanks to the staff of U.H.K. for the great care and kindness given to him during his four final days. Our thanks to Nurse Sharon Collins and all the nurses in Gneeveguilla Community Health Centre, who were always at our beck and call. Thank you also to our own doctors in Millstreet Medical Centre, Christine, Liam and Addi, and to the nurses and staff. Our gratitude to our pharmacist, Liam Sheehan, and our appreciation to our friend and neighbour Dan O'Connor for bringing us our medication over the many years.

We are very grateful to our own families – the Dalys and Flemings – for all their help over the years, and to Hannah Mary, Nono and Mary Hickey for coming to our aid at short notice on so many occasions.

A very sincere thank you to all our wonderful neighbours and friends for everything they did during Oliver's funeral – preparing the yards and house, all the ladies for doing such fantastic baking and dinners, those who did the catering, and to everyone who helped in any way, especially Colm, Stephen, Siobhán, Caitriona, Orlagh, Shella, Han, Anne and Sharon, John Kelliher for his obituary in the Sliabh Luachra Journal and to Oliver's old friend Donal Hickey.

Our thanks to Gneeveguilla GAA Club and Chairperson Seán O'Keeffe for their help and support during the funeral. A special thank you to the stewards and to the Guard of Honour from the church to our home. It was a lovely tribute to Oliver and was very much appreciated.

Thanks to Denis Doody and staff for the great food served in the hall after the burial, and to the Ladies Committee for the bar food in the evening.

Our heartfelt thanks to Fr. Pat O'Donnell for being such a great support to us over the years, and for the beautiful Funeral Mass he celebrated together with Fr. Pat McCarthy, Fr. Tadhg and Fr. Michéal Doherty, Fr. O'Mahony and Monsignor Dan Herlihy, and to our sacristan, Eugie.

Thanks to Sister Eilish and Marie for organising the liturgy and readers. The choir, Sheila and Joan, together with Conor Brosnan, beautifully enhanced the Funeral Mass with their singing. Thanks also to Mikey Cronin for playing the Irish Polka, which Oliver loved, and to Timothy for reciting his father's poem, The Road Downhill, at the graveside.

Thanks to the undertakers, Seán O'Mahony and Christy, very professional as always, and to the gravediggers, Murphy's Headstones, Breda Nagel Florist, and to Kathleen, Janice and Josie in our Parish Office.

As it is impossible to thank everyone individually, please accept this acknowledgement as an expression of our sincere and heartfelt appreciation.

May God bless you all, and may our wonderful community spirit live long in our parish.

Oliver's memory lives on in the hearts of all who knew and loved him, and for that we will always be grateful.

Mass has been offered for your intentions.

Oliver's First Anniversary Mass will be celebrated on Sunday, 23rd August 2026, at 9.30 a.m. in Gneeveguilla Church.
